

Tacky Race Rules

In the morning, Saturday 30th April, if you choose, there will be a show and shine of bikes and contraptions before the Event in Geldmacher Square. Please ensure you inform us of your pseudonym at the Royal Arms by 1 pm. If you would like to park your machine for display, and yes posing and accolades, until 2.00pm, please do so by the Nimmity Bell. Expect photos to be taken by one and all and maybe used in promotions.

Now on with the Event Rules.

1. Obey Road Rules
2. No Unsafe Speed Racing
3. Obligatory Goading and Taunting and Banter
4. Competitor's bike must be decorated as well as the rider to their taste or look
5. Must Have Fun
6. Crossing the Designated Line does not Entirely Mean Winner, that's 2 Points Only, not a Speed Race
7. The winner is determined by their Look & Feel & Presentation, & the 2 points for crossing the line
8. Anything can be entered as long as it self-propels, electric, or pedals or both, so scooters or mobility chairs are okay
9. Gender, who cares! just be in it. Everyone has the right to be the best weirdo or fool for attempting the endeavour
10. Be the best poser you can be before and after the Event for photo ops
11. At the end of the Event competitors to assemble with bikes and other contraptions at the Nimmity Bell for the presentation, winner takes all; and photos, as there will be a group one.
